

The Crofton Boys

Harriet MARTINEAU (1802 - 1876)

Read by Jane Dever

Children's Fictional Novel; a historic testament to family and school life in the 1800's; a mesmerizing and touching piece about a spirited young boy's school experience, which includes the topic of bullying, relevant still. Written by Harriet Martineau, a noteworthy author, abolitionist and women's rights activist, who shed light on social issues in her skillfully written work. A Gutenberg Project text, audio recorded by Jane Dever for Librivox.org and part of the public domain; originally published in 1844. ( Jane Dever)
